Projects and Personal Experience

Etnia Barcelona LLC, Product Development Engineer – Guangzhou, China Summer of 2014 & 2016

I worked in the Asian facilities for Etnia Barcelona, a reputable eyewear distributor. I engaged many industrial production processes from production optimization to quality control. My main task was to convert design mockups into CAD for manufacture. This was a truly unique experience where I took a deep dive into large scale manufacture.

Data Analytics Mobile Application for Sports Teams – April 2017 - Present A mobile application built in React Native with Redux state management for team data storage and data analytics. I built this product end to end. Cool features include: image processing for text recognition, Google Sheets API integration, chat messaging, and Calendar Features

Real Time Event Sharing Mobile Application – March 2017

I worked in a team of three engineers over a one-month period to build launch and scale a mobile application. The product was built in React Native with Redux state management. I was tasked with designing a ReSTful client/server communication protocol that allows for data storage and user to user communication.

Senior Design Project, Stroke Rehabilitative Device - Fall 2015 - Spring

I coordinated efforts with teammates to design and build a stroke rehabilitation device. My main goal in this project was optimization and design analysis, as well as design for manufacture. Our team was an Intel Cornell Cup Finalist.
